

Announcement from the LEVA Board of Directors

Released November 19, 2022

The LEVA Board of Directors has mandated that, as of January 1, 2023, a non-refundable USD 25 per person service fee will be assessed for all LEVA certification renewals. The Board determined the fee is necessary to offset administrative costs for renewals which LEVA has absorbed since 2009.

On January 1, the respective certification renewal forms will be updated to include a link to an online credit card payment form.
